B. AND WHEREAS, through their participation in the Visa network, the Mastercard network or both, the Settling Defendants received Interchange Fees in Canada during the Class Period;

C. AND WHEREAS the Settling Defendants believe that they are not liable in respect of the Alleged Conduct, and believe they have good and valid defences in respect of the claims advanced in the Canadian Proceedings;

D. AND WHEREAS the Settling Defendants do not admit through the execution of this Settlement Agreement any allegation of unlawful conduct, as alleged in the Canadian Proceedings or at all;

E. AND WHEREAS the Parties agree that neither this Settlement Agreement nor any statement made in the negotiations thereof shall be deemed or construed to be an admission by or evidence against the Settling Defendants or evidence of the truth of any of the Plaintiffs' allegations against the Settling Defendants, which the Settling Defendants expressly deny;

F. AND WHEREAS, despite their firm belief that they are not liable in respect of the Alleged Conduct and that they have good and valid defences in respect of the claims advanced in the Canadian Proceedings, the Settling Defendants have negotiated and entered into this Settlement

Agreement to avoid the further expense, inconvenience, and distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation of the Canadian Proceedings and any other present or future litigation arising out of the facts that gave rise to them, to avoid the risks inherent in uncertain, complex and protracted litigation and to achieve final resolutions of all claims asserted or which could have been asserted against the Releasees by the Plaintiffs on their own behalf and on behalf of the classes they seek to represent in relation to the Alleged Conduct;

G. AND WHEREAS the Settling Defendants expressly reserve their right to contest or appeal certification or authorization of other related or unrelated proceedings and assert that the actions herein would not be appropriately certified or authorized in the absence of this Settlement Agreement, and that this Settlement Agreement does not constitute in any way a precedent to support the certification or authorization of classes of this nature;

H. AND WHEREAS counsel for the Releasees have engaged in extensive arm's-length settlement discussions and negotiations with Class Counsel in respect of this Settlement Agreement;

I. AND WHEREAS as a result of these settlement discussions and negotiations, the Settling Defendants and the Plaintiffs have entered into this Settlement Agreement, which embodies all of the terms and conditions of settlement between the Settling Defendants and the Plaintiffs, both individually and on behalf of the Settlement Class, subject to approval of all Courts;

J. AND WHEREAS as part of this resolution, the Settling Defendants have agreed to pay the Settlement Amount for the benefit of the Settlement Class Members;

K. AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs have agreed to accept the Settlement Amount, in part, because of the value of the Settlement Amount paid under this Settlement Agreement, as well as the attendant risks of litigation in light of the potential defences that may be asserted by the Settling Defendants;

L. AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs will ask the Courts to approve a Distribution Protocol that provides for compensation to be paid to the Settlement Class Members from the Settlement Amount;

M. AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have reviewed and fully understand the terms of this Settlement Agreement and, based on their analyses of the facts and law applicable to the Plaintiffs' claims, and having regard to the proposed dismissal of the Canadian Proceedings in their entirety, the value of the Settlement Amount to be provided by the Settling Defendants, the burdens and expense associated with prosecuting the Canadian Proceedings, including the risks and uncertainties associated with motions, trials and appeals, the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have concluded that this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the Plaintiffs and the classes they seek to represent in the Canadian Proceedings;

N. AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members intend to fully and completely settle and resolve the claims advanced or which could have been advanced in the Canadian Proceedings as against the Releasees on the Effective Date pursuant to this Settlement Agreement;

O. AND WHEREAS the Parties therefore wish to, and hereby do, finally resolve on a nationwide basis, without admission of liability, all of the Canadian Proceedings as against the Releasees;

5.2 Covenant Not To Sue

(1) Notwithstanding section 5.1(1), for any Releasor resident in any province or territory where the release of one tortfeasor is a release of all other tortfeasors, the Releasors do not release the Releasees but instead covenant and undertake not to sue or make any claim in any way or to threaten, commence, participate in, or continue any proceeding in any jurisdiction against the Releasees in respect of or in relation to the Released Claims. PUBLICATION NOTICE

TO ALL MERCHANTS IN CANADA WHO ACCEPT VISA OR MASTERCARD CREDIT CARDS

Class action lawsuits were brought in BC, AB, ON, SK and QC against Visa, Mastercard and a number of banks that issue their credit cards (the “Issuing Banks”) on behalf of all merchants in Canada who accept those credit cards. The lawsuits allege a conspiracy in setting higher interchange fees paid by merchants to accept Visa and Mastercard credit cards, and other restrictions. The allegations are denied.

Settlements of class action lawsuits must be approved by the Courts before they are effective. To date, seven settlements with some of the Issuing Banks and with Visa and MasterCard have been approved. The net proceeds of those settlements were held for distribution after resolution of the remaining claims.

There is now a proposed settlement with the five remaining Issuing Banks, namely, ROYAL BANK OF CANADA, THE TORONTO-DOMINION BANK, CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE, BANK OF MONTREAL, AND THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA (collectively, the “Settling Defendants”). This proposed settlement provides for a payment of $120,000,000.00 (one hundred and twenty million dollars) for the benefit of the Settlement Class. In exchange, Settlement Class Members give the Settling Defendants and related entities a full release of claims arising from the alleged conduct at issue. If the proposed settlement is approved by the Courts, the net settlement funds generated in this proposed settlement, and in the previous approved settlements, will be distributed to Settlement Class Members in accordance with a distribution plan, also subject to approval by the Courts. A full copy of the proposed settlement agreement, including the full language of the release and the proposed distribution plan are available at www.creditcardsettlements.ca. The proposed settlement is not an admission of liability on the part of the Settling Defendants who deny the allegations, nor has there been any finding of liability by the Court against them.

Hearings to consider whether the proposed settlement should be approved, and if so, the amounts payable to class action lawyers will take place as follows:

AB	BC	ON	QC	SK
<date>	<date>	<date>	<date>	<date>

YOU ARE A SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER IF YOU ARE A MERCHANT WHO ACCEPTED VISA OR MASTERCARD CREDIT CARDS IN CANADA AFTER MARCH 23, 2001

YOU HAVE DIFFERENT OPTIONS IF YOU RESIDE IN QUEBEC AND IF YOU BEGAN ACCEPTING VISA OR MASTERCARD CREDIT CARDS AFTER MAY 31, 2018

- All Settlement Class Members can comment on the proposed settlement. You can do so by delivering comments to the court-appointed Administrator at <info> by <date>. There will subsequently be an opportunity to comment on the proposed distribution plan once presented to the Courts for approval.
- For most merchants in all provinces and territories outside Quebec, and merchants in Quebec which had 50 or more employees at any time between December 17, 2009 and December 17, 2010, the right to opt out was given with past settlements and has expired. This means those merchants will be automatically included in the Settlement Class and will be eligible to make a claim for benefits pursuant to the distribution plan approved by the Courts.
- Merchants in Quebec which did not have more than 50 employees as set out above, and “new merchants” anywhere in Canada (who only began accepting Visa or Mastercard credit cards after May 31, 2018), have a limited time to decide whether to opt out from the lawsuits (and from the settlements). Opt out requests must be received by <date>. Those who do not opt out will be automatically included in the Settlement Class.

This is just a summary. Full details of the proposed settlement and information about Settlement Class membership and options including how to attend hearings and opt out are posted on www.creditcardsettlements.ca, or are available from one of the Class Action Lawyers below.

LONG FORM NOTICE

MERCHANT CREDIT CARD FEES SETTLEMENT NOTICE

Are you a merchant in Canada who accepted Visa or Mastercard credit cards?

If you are a merchant in Canada who accepted Visa or Mastercard credit cards as payment for goods or services at any point in time after March 23, 2001, your rights could be affected by a proposed national class action settlement with:

Royal Bank of Canada, The Toronto-Dominion Bank, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and The Bank of Nova Scotia

The Credit Card Actions

Class action lawsuits were commenced in British Columbia (the “BC Action”), Alberta, Saskatchewan, Quebec (the “QC Action”) and Ontario (collectively, the “Credit Card Actions”) against Visa Canada Corporation (“Visa”), Mastercard International Incorporated (“Mastercard”) and certain banks which issue credit cards (“Issuing Banks”) alleging each of Visa and Mastercard conspired with their Issuing Banks and acquirers in setting the amount of interchange fees and imposing rules restricting merchants’ ability to surcharge or refuse higher cost Visa and Mastercard credit cards. The BC Action and the QC Action were certified/authorized as a class proceeding.

The Prior Settlements

There have been a number of partial settlements achieved to date. The Courts have previously approved settlement agreements with Bank of America, Citigroup, Capital One, Desjardins, National Bank, and each of Visa and Mastercard (the “Prior Settlements”). The Prior Settlements have a total value of $68,530,000 plus accrued interest. Information about the Prior Settlements is available at www.creditcardsettlements.ca. The net proceeds from the Prior Settlements have been held by the Class Lawyers pending resolution of all remaining claims in the Credit Card Actions.

The New Settlement

Although each of Royal Bank of Canada, The Toronto-Dominion Bank, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and The Bank of Nova Scotia (collectively, the “Settling Defendants”) deny liability, they have collectively entered into a new national settlement with the plaintiffs (the “Proposed Settlement”), subject to approval of the Courts. The Settling Defendants will collectively pay a total of CAD $120 million (the “Settlement Amount”) for the benefit of the Settlement Class Members in exchange for the dismissal of the Credit Card Actions and other related litigation, and a full release of all claims advanced against each of them and their related entities, including future claims relating to continuing acts or practices that occurred prior to or following the commencement of the Credit Card Actions. The Proposed Settlement is not an admission of liability on the part of the Settling Defendants who deny the allegations, nor has there been any finding of liability by the Courts against them.

If the Proposed Settlement is approved, the Class Lawyers will ask the Courts to approve the deduction of certain amounts from the Settlement Amount, including costs incurred to distribute this notice and process opt-out requests, comments and objections, a counsel fee of up to 30% of the recovered amounts (subject to approval by the Courts), and disbursements.

Distribution of Net Settlement Proceeds

If the Proposed Settlement is approved, it will bring the Credit Card Actions to an end and will allow the distribution of the net settlement proceeds remaining after deduction of all court-approved fees, costs and expenses in respect of the Prior Settlements and the Proposed Settlement (collectively, the “Net Settlement Proceeds”). It is estimated that there will be approximately <amount> available for distribution to Settlement Class Members.

In consultation with the plaintiffs, the Class Lawyers will develop a Distribution Plan for the distribution of the Net Settlement Proceeds. The Distribution Plan is subject to court approval. If you would like to make sure that you receive direct notice of any later distribution, please register at www.creditcardsettlements.ca, or contact one of the Class Lawyers below.

Certification/Authorization as Class Proceedings for Settlement Purposes

The BC Action and the QC Action were already certified / authorized to proceed as class actions by the Courts, but with some limitations. In order to implement the Proposed Settlement, the Courts have, for settlement purposes only, certified / authorized all of the Credit Card Actions as class proceedings on broader terms against the Settling Defendants.

Who Are The Settlement Class Members?

The court-approved definition of “Settlement Class Member” sets out who can participate in and is bound by the Proposed Settlement, including the release of claims. You are a Settlement Class Member if you accept or accepted Visa credit cards and/or Mastercard credit cards as payment for goods or services and incurred merchant discount fees, including interchange fees, in Canada since March 23, 2001.

The Settlement Class includes Quebec Settlement Class Members. Quebec Settlement Class Members are Quebec resident persons and partnerships who accepted Visa and/or Mastercard credit cards as payment for goods or services and incurred merchant discount fees, including interchange fees, at any time since March 23, 2001. As noted below, Quebec Settlement Class Members have different participation options.

Any legal persons established for a private interest and any partnership resident in Quebec, which at any time between December 17, 2009 and December 17, 2010 had under its direction or control more than 50 persons bound to it by contract of employment, and any legal persons established for a public interest resident in Quebec are not Quebec Settlement Class Members, but are Settlement Class Members in Ontario.

All Settlement Class Members are affected by this notice.

Settlement Approval Hearings

Hearings to consider approval of the Proposed Settlement, a counsel fee of up to 30% of the recovered amounts, and disbursements and other expenses payable from the Settlement Amount will be heard on:

- [date], 2020 (British Columbia Supreme Court, Vancouver)
- [date], 2020 (Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Edmonton)
- [date], 2020 (Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan, Regina)
- [date], 2020 (Quebec Superior Court, Montreal)
- [date], 2020 (Ontario Superior Court of Justice, Toronto).

Anyone can attend the hearings, but if you wish to speak to the Court at any of these hearings, please advise the Administrator (Epiq Systems)*.

If you wish to provide comment on or objection to the Proposed Settlement, you must do so by delivering same in writing to the Administrator* by ●, 2020. Comments or objections will be provided to the Court for consideration in whether to approve or reject the Proposed Settlement.

Participating in the Proposed Settlement or Credit Card Actions (No Action Needed)

Settlement Class Members who wish to participate in the approved settlements and in the Credit Card Actions do not need to do anything at this time, although we encourage them to identify themselves as a Settlement Class Member (subject to future verification of eligibility) so that that they receive direct notice of any important developments, including the approval of the Distribution Plan and the commencement of the time in which to make a claim for a share of the settlement benefits.

Opting Out of the Credit Card Actions or Proposed Settlement (Requires Action)

Merchants who do not wish to participate in the Proposed Settlement have to opt out (exclude themselves). The Courts in Quebec and in the common law provinces have approved different rules regarding opting out of the Credit Card Actions and settlements. In practice, Quebec Settlement Class Members have an opportunity to opt out in connection with each round of settlement approval, whereas other Settlement Class Members in the rest of Canada are given a single opportunity to elect whether to opt out or not. In all cases, once a Settlement Class Member elects to opt out, they are out for good and cannot opt back into the Credit Card Actions.

For most Settlement Class Members, the right to opt out of the Credit Card Actions was previously provided in connection with the approval of some of the Prior Settlements and has now expired.

The only Settlement Class Members who can elect to opt out at this time are:

- Quebec Settlement Class Members; and
- Persons who only began accepting Visa and/or Mastercard credit cards after May 31, 2018 (the “New Merchants”).

The deadline for Quebec Settlement Class Members and New Merchants to opt out is ●, 2020. Regardless, all Settlement Class Members who do not opt out can still make their views known about the Proposed Settlement as set out above by delivery of a written comment or objection to the Administrator* by ●, 2020.

Consequences of Opting Out

a) for Quebec Settlement Class Members:

By opting out, you are choosing not to take part in the Proposed Settlement.

Quebec Settlement Class Members who opt out will not be bound by the Proposed Settlement or the release in that settlement, but will also not be entitled to share in any of the proceeds that will become available to merchants as part of that settlement.

Quebec Settlement Class Members who opt out of the Proposed Settlement will remain bound by the Prior Settlements and the releases given to other parties in those settlements, and will be entitled to share in the proceeds that may become available to merchants as part of those settlements.

b) for New Merchants:

By opting out, you are choosing not to take part in any of the Prior Settlements or in the Proposed Settlement.

New Merchants who opt out will not be bound by the Prior Settlements and the Proposed Settlement or the releases in those settlements, but will also not be entitled to share in any of the proceeds that will become available to merchants as part of those settlements.

Consequences of NOT Opting Out

a) for Quebec Settlement Class Members

Quebec Settlement Class Members who do not opt out will be bound by the Proposed Settlement and the release in same, and will be entitled to share in the proceeds that will become available to merchants as part of that settlement.

b) for New Merchants

New Merchants who do not opt out will be bound by the Prior Settlements and the Proposed Settlement, and the releases in them, and will be entitled to share in any of the proceeds that will become available to merchants as part of those settlements.

1. The Settlement Agreement, as attached at Schedule "A", is incorporated into this Order in its entirety and forms part of this Order, and the definitions in the Settlement Agreement shall be applied in interpreting this Order;
2. In the event of a conflict between this Order and the Settlement Agreement, this Order shall prevail;
3. The Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the BC Mastercard Settlement Class and the BC Visa Settlement Class (collectively, the "BC Settlement Class");
4. The Settlement Agreement is hereby approved pursuant to section 35 of the Class Proceedings Act, RSBC 1996, c 50 and shall be implemented in accordance with its terms and the terms of this Order;

8. Upon the Effective Date, each other action or proceeding commenced in British Columbia by any Releasor shall be and is hereby dismissed against the Releasees, without costs and with prejudice;
9. Upon the Effective Date, each Releasor who has not validly opted-out of the BC Proceeding has released and shall be conclusively deemed to have forever, finally and absolutely released the Releasees from the Released Claims;

12. Instead of releasing the claims against the Releasees, upon the Effective Date, each Releasor who is resident in any province or territory where the release of one tortfeasor is a release of all tortfeasors covenants and undertakes not to sue or make any claim in any way nor to threaten, commence, participate in or continue any proceeding in any jurisdiction against the Releasees in respect of or in relation to the Released Claims.
